RECEIVER'S MOTION TO APPROVE
SETTLEMENT WITH LYNDAM HAMMILL IN SUPPLEMENTAL PROCEEDING

Michael E. Moecker, the Receiver for Botfly L.L.C. ("Botfly"), David R. Lewalski, and Jon J. Hammill and all other entities operated, controlled or otherwise associated with the Defendants' activities, by and through undersigned counsel (collectively, the "Receivership

Entities”), moves for the entry of an order approving a Settlement Agreement reached with Lynda Hammill (“Hammill”). In support of this Motion, the Receiver states as follows:

A. Background

1. On April 1, 2010, the Office of the Attorney General, Department of Legal Affairs, State of Florida, initiated this action to halt the perpetration of an ongoing fraud perpetrated by Lewalski, Jon J. Hammill and others on investors and potential investors in Botfly, LLC.

2. That same day, the Court appointed Michael E. Moecker to be the Receiver.

3. Pursuant to the Order Appointing Receiver, the Receiver has the power and duty to marshal, preserve, protect, maintain, manage and safeguard the assets of the Receivership Entities in a reasonable, prudent, diligent, and efficient manner.

4. The Order Appointing Receiver requires the Receiver to collect and reduce to money the assets of the Receivership Entities either by suit, in any court of competent jurisdiction, or by public or private sale and specifically authorizes him to file suit to recover property of the Receivership Entities including, but not limited to, fraudulent conveyances and other claims and causes of actions of the Receivership Entities.

5. The Case Management Order further requires that all settlements in the Supplemental Proceedings are subject to Court approval. The Receiver must file in the Main Case a Motion to Approve the Settlement Agreement on negative notice to the parties in the Main Case. The Settlement Agreement is only enforceable upon approval of the Court. The funds subject to the Settlement Agreement must be held in trust until the Court enters an order approving the Settlement Agreement at issue.

B. The Dispute

6. Defendant Hammill received funds from the Receivership Entities that was in excess of the funds invested into Botfly LLC.

7. On December 20, 2011, the Receiver filed a Supplemental Proceeding against the Defendant in the Pasco County Circuit Case No.: 2011-CA-1681-WS (the “Supplemental Proceeding”) to collect the funds derived from the Ponzi scheme given to Hammill and used to purchase, among other things, a 2006 Toyota Tundra as more fully set forth in the Complaint.

8. The Receiver has demanded a refund of the funds from Hammill.

C. The Compromise

9. A Settlement Agreement has been reached between the Receiver and Hammill resolving their disputes concerning whether all or any portion of the funds received from the Receivership Entities should be refunded to the Receivership. That settlement is embodied in a written agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit A (the “Settlement Agreement”).

10. The funds subject to the Settlement Agreement are being held in trust until the Court enters an order approving the Settlement Agreement.

11. The Settlement Agreement generally provides that, subject to the approval of the Court, in return for payment of an agreed amount of the Receiver’s demand, the Receiver will dismiss the Supplemental Proceeding with prejudice pending court approval.

12. By this motion, the Receiver seeks entry of an Order approving the settlement and compromise and granting related relief, all in accordance with the terms of the Settlement Agreement.

D. Interests of the Estate

13. Resolution of the claim set forth in the Settlement Agreement is in the best interest of the Receivership, the Botfly investors, and the Defendant, and will avoid lengthy and expensive litigation to resolve the dispute, conserves the Receivership assets and judicial resources, and avoids the cost of litigation to the Defendant. Litigation of the claim would require an investment of time by the Receiver and his counsel, incurring additional legal fees, costs and other expenses.

WHEREFORE, the Receiver moves the Court to approve the settlement reflected by the attached Settlement Agreement and providing such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

Defendant acknowledge(s) and agree(s) that Receiver is allowed to accept payments during the Forbearance Period or otherwise without prejudice to any rights or remedies including prosecution of this legal action to recover the Amount Due. The occurrence of any of the following events: (i) any bankruptcy petition be filed by or against Defendant; (ii) Defendant becomes insolvent or makes an assignment for the benefit of any creditor or creditors, and/or (iii) a receiver or trustee be appointed for any of the assets of Defendant; and/or
  - C. The breach of any representation, warranty, covenant, condition or other term of this Agreement.

In the event of a Forbearance Default, Receiver shall be entitled to immediately submit an ex parte motion for final judgment for money damages to recover the Amount Due, less any payments made, without further hearings or motions on the matter. 14. Execution in Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in several counterparts and through the exchange of facsimile or PDF signature papers and, as executed, shall constitute one Agreement.
