vs.

Case No.: 51-2010-CA-2912-WS/G

BOTFLY L.L.C., DAVID R. LEWALSKI, and JON J. HAMMILL,

Defendants.

ORDER MODIFYING TEMPORARY INJUNCTION

This case came before the Court for hearing on July 16, 2010 upon the Defendant, Jon J. Hammill's ("Hammill") Motion to Modify the Temporary Injunction (the "Motion"). The Court having heard argument from Jeffrey W. Warren, counsel for the Receiver, Nicholas Weilhammer, counsel for the Office of the Attorney General, and Jon J. Hammill, and being otherwise fully advised in the premises, finds that Mr. Hammill should be given limited relief from the Temporary Injunction to allow him to solicit and receive funds from investors or lenders who are his family or personal friends; provided however, that Mr. Hammill strictly adhere to the conditions set forth in this Order. Accordingly, it is ORDERED and ADJUDGED that:

1. The Temporary Injunction is modified to allow Mr. Hammill to solicit and receive funds from investors or lenders who are his family or personal friends to help pay his daily living expenses and attorneys' fees.

2. Prior to requesting financial assistance from any investors or lenders who are his family or personal friends, Mr. Hammill must disclose the existence of this action, the alleged violations, and the entry of the Order Appointing Receiver and the Temporary Injunction.

3. Any investors or lenders who are members of Mr. Hammill's family or his personal friends offering to provide financial assistance to Mr. Hammill pursuant to this Order, whether that assistance be direct or indirect, shall execute an affidavit in the form attached to this Order (the "Affidavit") in a manner that (a) provides full and complete disclosure of the source of the funds or assets to be used to render the assistance to Mr. Hammill and (b) demonstrates that the funds or assets to be provided to Mr. Hammill have no connection or relationship, direct or indirect, to any funds delivered by investors to Botfly, LLC. Before accepting any funds or assets, Mr. Hammill shall deliver the original affidavit to the Court for filing in the public record with copies to the Receiver, c/o Karen Cox, Esq., Bush Ross, P.A., P.O. Box 3913, Tampa, Florida 33601-3913; kcox@bushross.com and counsel for the Office of the Attorney General, attention Nicholas J. Weilhammer, Esq., PL-01; The Capitol, Tallahassee, Florida 32399-1050; Nicholas.Weilhammer@myfloridalegal.com.

4. If no objection is filed within three business days of (a) the filing of an Affidavit executed pursuant to paragraph 3 of this Order, and (b) receipt of a copy by the Receiver and the Office of the Attorney General as provided in paragraph 3 above, financial assistance may be rendered, however, such assistance may only be provided in the manner and amount disclosed in the Affidavit. If an objection is timely filed to a filed affidavit, the Court will consider such objection on an emergency basis.

5. Prior to accepting any financial assistance pursuant to the provisions of this Order, Mr. Hammill must verify that the original Affidavit has been delivered to the Court, the Receiver and the Office of Attorney General, and may only accept financial assistance if no objection is timely filed.

6. No person or entity rendering financial assistance to Mr. Hammill pursuant to this order shall have a claim against the Receivership assets based upon the financial assistance rendered.

DONE AND ORDERED in Chambers, New Port Richey, Pasco County, Florida on this _____ day of August, 2010.
